The Daily Oregonian.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 9, 1863.

The News.

The election returns from California, as we expected, indicate the success of the Union ticket by an immense majority, counted by thousands. The Independent Union ticket in San Francisco, in opposition to those nominated for the accomplishment of personal purposes, was handsomely sustained by more than two thousand majority—thus showing that men, like Horace Hawes, who will not sustain candidates simply because they are nominated, may rely in San Francisco upon the intelligent support of free men who desire to do their duty, without being incumbered by the shackles of party.

The sensation reports circulated yesterday in regard to the price of greenbacks, are the work of speculators: if anybody don't want to keep them, there is abundant opportunity to sell, and purchasers will make money.

Vallandigham Again.—This arch traitor has issued another missive to his traitor followers, in which he belches forth his wrathful rage against the Administration and the friends of the Union, and closes with a prophesy full of rebel sympathy and an appeal to the Democracy of Ohio, to show their desire for Confederate success by electing him as Governor, so that in case the rebellion should be crushed—the possibility of which he utterly denies—then there would be a better prospect of making a bargain for peace, as the South would recognize him as a friend to it and its institutions. What a motive to address to patriots. We quote the conclusion of his letter:

"The party of the Administration declares that the States and people of the South shall be forced to lay down their arms and submit. What then? Confiscation of all property, emancipation of all slaves and the execution of all who directly or indirectly, have taken part in the rebellion, namely; nine-tenths of the whole population, for a general amnesty has never, as yet, been so much as suggested by either Congress or the Executive, and unconditional submission is now the least which is demanded, though it would do more, not only for constitutional liberty, but for the Union, than such men could accomplish in a hundred years.

"I need not repeat my often declared conviction, which time has always vindicated, that the South cannot be conquered by force of arms; but granting, for argument's sake, the effectual check and waning proportions of the rebellion, as proclaimed now again for the hundredth time, by the organs of the Administration, and that by the second Monday of January next all the armies of the Confederates will have been captured or dispersed, and their remaining 500,000 square miles of territory overrun and occupied, then the hour for the pacification of the South and conciliation of her people will have arrived, which party will most readily harken to them? Who, as Governor of Ohio, will be the most efficient agent in that great and arduous task? Your candidate, committed wholly to the restoration of the Union as it was, or the candidate of the Administration, pledged to a policy full, upon the one hand, of continued exasperation and hate, and on the other of insurrection and revenge?

"Very momentous are these questions, for, until that shall have been accomplished, there can be neither Constitution for Union, and no security and no quiet in the land, nor can a single soldier tell their return to mother, or wife, or child, or home.

"Reason together, then, men of Ohio, and judge wisely, who love your country, and would restore it to its former peace, prosperity and glory. Continual war and strife are the forbidden fruit of our political Eden, and bear still the primal curse, uttered, in tones louder than the voice of the mighty cataract in whose presence I now write: 'In the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.'"

C. L. Vallandigham.

Launch at Milwaukie.—We learn that the new steamboat built by Joseph Kellogg and others will be launched at Milwakie tomorrow afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock. Her dimensions are as follows: Length of keel, 131 feet—breadth of beam twenty-four feet 3 inches. Depth of hold four feet and ten inches. She is to be propelled by two engines having cylinders sixteen inches diameter, with six feet stroke. Such a boat is expected to have great power with light draught, and it is supposed she will be able to run to Oregon City from Portland at all stages of the water. It is intended that she shall connect with the boat now being built by Capt. Geo. A. Pease, to run on the upper Willamette. Those who wish to see a handsome launch will have a good opportunity to do so by going up on the new road to-morrow afternoon.

Of Course Not.—The San Andreas Times, after publishing the form of the oath administered by General Conner to the emigrants winds up his spool with the following:

But no person with the spirit of a man in his body, though compelled on pain of death to take the oath, will consider it in any sense binding upon him, or fail to treat it with the scorn and contempt that it merits."

We never knew a rebel or a copperhead that ever considered any oath binding upon him. Perjury is a secondary crime to treason, always.

Prediction Fulfilled.—Some were disposed to sneer at Major General Banks nine months ago, because he said to the nine months men, that they should return home by another route than that of the ocean. Those same men are now coming home by way of the Mississippi river.

Additional Eastern News.

From the Sacramento Union we have the following additional news:

Washington, Sept. 1st.—An official announcement is made that notwithstanding the numerous vessels added to the navy within the past two years, the work of construction is still to go on. The Navy Department has just decided to build another fleet of iron clad vessels. They will be larger and more formidable than any now in the service of this or any other country, being, in fact, perfect copies of the great Ericsson ocean ships Puritan and Dictator, now building at New York.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Richmond papers of Saturday, August 29th, have the following:

White Sulphur Springs, Aug. 29.—We met the enemy yesterday about one and a half miles from this place on the road leading to Warm Springs. The fight lasted from nine A. M., to 7 P. M. Every attack made by the enemy was repulsed. At night each side occupied the same position they held in the morning. This morning the enemy moved toward the Springs, pursued by our cavalry and artillery. The enemy were about three thousand strong, with six pieces of artillery, under Gen. Averill. Our loss was twenty killed and wounded. The enemy's loss is not known. We have taken about one hundred and fifty prisoners and one piece of artillery.

Samuel Jones, Major General.

The Confederate steamer, Oceanica, which left Savannah for Nassau on Tuesday week, with a cargo of cotton, sprung a leak on Wednesday, Aug. 26, at sea, and went down. Her cargo was valued at two hundred thousand dollars. The vessel was worth fifty thousand dollars, and was owned by the Confederate Government.

New York, Sept. 1.—A Washington special dispatch says: Advices have been received by the Treasury Department stating that, contrary to all expectations, the search on the wreck of the steamer Ruth brought to light a portion of the Government funds supposed to have been burned. The packages taken out were burned to the depth of an inch and charred to the centre.

Thirty colored refugees from St. Charles county, Maryland, arrived at Washington yesterday. They state that rebel officers are busily engaged in conscripting negroes and hiding them in the pines until an opportunity offers to carry them away. They also report that guns, swords and pistols are accumulated there, having been gathered from various battle fields by rebel sympathizers and forwarded to the rebels in that county, by whom they are sent to the rebel army.

Washington, Sept. 1.—A report was received to-day that a large force of the rebel army crossed the Rappahannock at Port Conway yesterday, for the purpose, as supposed, of flanking Meade. Although such a movement is not improbable, the report needs confirmation.

Fortress Monroe, Aug. 29.—A Beaufort (N. C.) correspondent of Aug. 25th states that officers from the Wilmington Blockading squadron, arriving there, regard the attempt to blockade Wilmington with eight gunboats, when thirty are required, as vain. They also state that regular lines of packets, with the hour of sailing, are advertised as established between Wilmington and Nassau.

New York, Sept. 1.—The following dispatches are from rebel newspapers:

Charleston, August 25th.—The enemy's land batteries have been sending a steady fire on Sumter all day. The fighting at Wagner was chiefly the firing of our pickets on the enemy's sappers, who continue to approach Wagner. This evening about dark, the enemy's batteries opened a furious fire on Wagner, preparatory, as was supposed, to an assault. The following official dispatches have just been received:

Fort Sumter—7.35 P. M.—There is an assault now being made at Battery Wagner. They are evidently in heavy force.

Alfred Rhett, Colonel Commanding.

Later.—The musketry has ceased. The enemy is firing a few mortar shells at Wagner. The first assault has been repulsed. No shell has been thrown into the city since daylight on Monday morning, August 24th.

Washington, August 31.—The Richmond Sentinel of Saturday, Aug. 29th, says: "We learn that orders have been issued at Charleston to all persons possessing cotton, to have it removed promptly from the limits of the city, as its presence during the bombardment from the enemy's shells is considered dangerous. The attention of housekeepers and citizens generally, is also called to the notice recommending that a constant supply of water be kept on hand to extinguish the enemy's incendiary shells exploding in the city."

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 1.—President Lincoln has written a letter to the Mass Convention which meets in this city on September 3d. The letter was received yesterday. Its perusal will gladden the heart of every true Union man in the country, vindicate the President's fame and character, and be the key note to the next Presidential campaign.

Kansas City, August 31st.—Lieut. Col. Clark, of the Ninth Kansas, returned last night from the pursuit of Quantrell through Jackson, Cass and Johnson counties. His command killed forty of the party who participated in the Lawrence massacre. Companies have also returned from different points, having killed and wounded several bushwhackers. The whole number of guerrillas killed thus far exceeds a hundred.

Chicago, August 31.—Advices from Gen. Steele's (Ark.) expedition to Aug. 21st have been received. The base of supplies had been transferred from Clarendon to Duvall's Bluff, on the White river. The advance was constantly skirmishing with the rebels, who were posted at Bayou Metoe, 12 miles distant from Little Rock. All the rebel forces west of the Mississippi are concentrating at the Bayou. Exciting news is expected daily. Prisoners taken say the number of the enemy present is 17,000; and may be brought up by the time of a battle to 25,000, with 23 pieces of artillery. Both sides of the river are said to be fortified. Our troops are delighted with the prospect of a fight and sanguine of success.

Leavenworth, Sept. 1.—Advices from Port Gibson to August 24th have been received. Blunt, with 6,000 men and two pieces of artillery, crossed the Arkansas the day before, but the enemy declined battle and fell back. The rebel force was estimated at 12,000. It was reported at Fort Scott on August 28th that Blunt had a battle and had been whipped, with a loss of 300 men. No particulars.

Chicago, August 31.—Vicksburg dates to August 27th have been received. Texas refugees who arrived there report that Magruder was mercilessly enforcing the conscription, and had made a clean sweep.

A late Mobile Tribune thinks Grant's army is playing a deep game of some kind, but that Johnston is fully advised and will meet Grant at Philippi. Troops continue to move down the river.

The steamers Sallie and Progress were fired into a few days since on White river. Five persons were wounded. The boats were not damaged.

The rebel gun boat Grand Duke, valued at a hundred and fifty thousand dollars, with a cargo of cotton, was accidentally destroyed by fire at Shreveport, (La.) a short time since.

Jackson, (Miss.) Aug. 29.—The Yankees are in force four miles below Raymond. Gentlemen from Vicksburg report an important military movement on foot, the character of which has not transpired.

Stevenson, (Ala.) Aug. 31.—A rebel account of the late bombardment of Chattanooga says three soldiers and five citizens, among them being two ladies, were killed.

New York, Aug. 31.—The Herald has advices stating that Minatitlan was captured by the French, and an expedition has started to occupy Tampico. Juarez is reported fleeing to Texas. Mexican papers think there is danger of a war with the United States.

European Intelligence.

Dates from Europe are to August 23d. The following is the most important European news:

The privateer Florida was off Queenstown on the 18th. The Cork Herald had previously announced her arrival to effect a shipment of men, and at the instance of the U. S. Consul, notice has been posted by the Port Admiral warning the people against any breach of the Foreign Enlistment Act.

The Confederate loan has declined from 29 to 27 per cent discount.

The Mexican and Polish questions were in statu quo. The notes of France and England to Russia are represented as quite pacific.

The Morning Post thinks that if the Russian reply be unfavorable, the Poles should be recognized as a belligerent power.

The ship Eagle has arrived at Liverpool from Bermuda, with nearly 80,000 ounces of silver bars, supposed to be from the ship B. F. Hoxie.

Nothing is known of the movements of the Florida since the evening of the 20th, when she was off Tuscar. Speculations were afloat as to the object of the Florida's visit. One report is that it was for the purpose of taking Mason on board, who was about returning to the South.

The Shipping Gazette says: It is reported that the silver bars taken from the B. F. Hoxie will be returned to the original consignees. The silver was shipped by an English House and insured in London to the full amount. It is said that the commander of the Florida, who captured the Hoxie, hearing this, resolved to restore the silver to the rightful owners.

The Army and Navy Gazette says: "The Government is not blind to the danger of a difficulty with America, nor is it indifferent to a rupture, which we trust the good sense of all respectable Americans will aid in averting." The same journal adds: "'Tis with no wish to flatter the great republican tyranny which is now raising its head on the North American continent, that we again record our conviction of the ultimate success of the military measures the North has adopted to crush her foe, the South. If Gen. Lee be now able to seize Washington, or if he should utterly rout the Army of the Potomac, the effect would be so great that another year would be gained; but should Lee remain inactive and permit the Federal armies to camp around his rear and overlap all his communications, Richmond will become a caput mortuum and the South will be lost."

The Globe thinks that peace is still distant, but not doubtful, and says the South may be mangled and exhausted, but must win in the end. The Confederate loan, on August 21st, closed at 28@29 discount.

The American Consul at Frankfort had displayed the Mexican flag. L'Europe, of that city, explains that this was in pursuance of an arrangement by which, in case of the overthrow of Republican authority in Mexico, President Lincoln would allow Mexico to be represented in foreign countries by agents of the Washington Government. L'Europe refers to the fact that in March last Secretary Seward declared that President Lincoln and Cabinet would never tolerate a monarchical government in Mexico, and anticipates an immediate war if Napoleon does not confine himself to a demand for indemnity and leave Mexico a Republic.

It is asserted that the Spanish ministry will not consider the Mexican question until Maximilian has given a decision in regard to the acceptance of the crown.

Shanghae, July 4th.—The Imperialists attacked Nankin and captured the outer works.

Intelligence from Japan announces that the Japanese refused the demands of England. The Mikado had issued orders to expel all foreigners and close the Japanese ports.

The loss of property by the earthquake at Manilla reaches forty million dollars.

The Catholic Clergy and the Riots.—The Catholic clergy in New York were generally very emphatic, on the Sunday after the riots, in their denunciation of all riotous proceedings, and in advising their hearers to keep aloof from all unlawful assemblages. The one who appears to have borne the hardest upon the friends of Gov. Seymour and Judge McCunn, was Rev. Mr. O'Fallen, of St. Mary's Church. This clergyman is reported to have hurled his spiritual thunderbolts at the rioters as follows:

He denied that any of those who had taken part in plundering and destroying property were Catholics, and said that the church should not be aspersed for their deeds. He solemnly proclaimed from the sacred altar that none who were in the mob could receive the sacrament of the church nor even at death could they receive absolution of the church, until repentance; nor would repentance be acceptable until full restoration to the last cent should be made for any property wrongfully taken from others. To all them who did not make complete restitution, as well as confession, the gates of Heaven would be forever closed. He would warn the riotously disposed to look well to themselves lest the next bullet should deprive them of the society of the blest forever.

"Unconstitutional."—It is reported by telegraph, that "Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States of America," etc., has decided to call into the field 500,000 black men as soldiers, and offers them their freedom if they will fight for him, together with fifty acres of land to such of them as shall survive, or the same amount to the support of the family of those that may fall. Now this is "unconstitutional." It is "placing arms in the hands of the slaves to kill our white brethren." It is "raising negroes to an equality with the white men." It is the destruction of A. H. Stephens' slave empire, or of the empire Southern oligarchists were to erect "the chief corner stone of which is slavery." How can the superstructure stand if "the chief corner stone" is pulled away? The thing is impossible, it must topple and crumble into dust. But the Governors of the States advised it! By what authority? "It is unconstitutional." It is interfering with "State rights." Neither the President nor Governors have power over this question. They are "usurpers, tyrants."

But this course shows that rebellion is driven to the wall. It is on its last legs. It cannot much longer exist. It is "petering" out and if it places arms in the hands of its slaves, it will soon be devoured by its own hounds. "Now, by St. George, the work goes bravely on."—Sacramento Bee.

The Catholic Bishop of Newark, N. J., must be an Irishman. He tells the people of his diocese that the only way to deal with rioters is "to give them grape and canister until every disturber of the peace shall return to his duty." It is to be feared that the grape and canister would interfere with some of them returning to their duty!

The rebels at Charleston have already begun to cotton to our monitors, having hung bales of that staple from the parapet against the face of Sumter. This shows they fear the iron clads; but one of our officers says that cotton bales on Fort Sumter, as opposed to 15 inch shot, reminds him of the expression of the thief who said, "It made his jack knife laugh to see a lock upon a mail bag."

Thankful.—At San Jose, Weller, with the whiskey tears in his eyes, exclaimed: "I am the last of my race!" "Thank God for that!" said a little man in spectacles.—Republic.

The California Volunteers stationed at Fort Hoskins voted the Union ticket unanimously—casting 69 straight votes for Low.

Punch says: "A foolish friend of ours declares that the discovery of the source of the Nile would in the dark ages have been called an act of sourcery."

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to September 3d.

New York, Sept. 3.—The Herald's special from Washington, says, reports are in circulation of a flanking movement by Lee, and extensive rebel cavalry demonstrations, for which there is no foundation, other than the moving of some small bodies of rebel cavalry on the lower Rappahannock. There is no prospect of an immediate movement by either army. Three hundred rebel infantry are at Snicker's Gap, enforcing the conscription act.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—The Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer of the 1st inst., says: Gen. Averill's cavalry expedition has returned to Huttersville, Randolph county. The expedition went through Hardy, Pendleton and Pocahontas counties, destroying all the saltpeter found at Pendleton, and drove Jackson out of Pocahontas, pursuing him to Greenbrier, near Culpepper Springs, at Rocky Gap. Averill encountered the forces of Jones and Col. Patton, and had a severe fight, in which our loss was 100 killed and wounded, including a number of officers. Averill took a number of prisoners, including some officers, and destroyed the rebel camps, with a large amount of stores.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 2.—The latest news from Burnside's army says that he had passed Jamestown, East Tennessee, went through the Gaps, and was marching on Kingston to the Virginia and Tennessee railroad, thus cutting off the rebel retreat to the west, while another force, which went east to Cumberland Gap, would cut off the road above, and thus capture or drive the rebels out of the valley.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Gen. Blunt's official report of the battle of Honey Springs, in the Indian territory, is published. It speaks in the highest terms of the bravery of the negro troops of this command, and says they were in the hottest of the fight, opposed to Texans twice their number, whom they completely routed. The Texans who fought against them went into the fight with 300 men and came out with only 60.

Memphis, Sept. 1.—By the arrival of the steamer City of Alton we have news from New Orleans to the 28th and from Vicksburg to the 30th ult. An expedition of Mississippi river steamboats for some point of the Gulf, was about ready to sail. The importance of the expedition was such that Grant was to leave Vicksburg to take command of it. Nothing later from Arkansas. A reconnoitering party had gone to Lake's Bluff, some distance above Duvall's Bluff. A small rebel force stationed there made some resistance, but they were quickly dispossessed. Several rebels were killed. No loss on our side.

New York, Sept. 3.—Gold 24¼—the other markets unchanged.

All communications from Charleston, except Government dispatches, have been stopped by order of the Government.

California News.

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—The entire vote of the city, 14,731, the largest vote ever cast. Returns in from all the districts except the 9th and 10th, and show Low's majority 4,469. Independent Union local ticket, 2,184. Returns from these wards will increase Low's majority to 5,500, and the Independent ticket majority to about 2,900. The returns from the State at large indicate about 20,000 majority for the Republican ticket.

Newark, Ohio, June 5, 1858.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: It is with great pleasure that I inform you of the effects of DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS in my family. Four years ago I had the BILIOUS FEVER, although under the care of an old school Physician, who treated me with Calomel until I was salivated, and my tongue was much swollen, and it was the cause of more pain than the disease itself. Finally he gave me up, and said that I could not live. I still lingered six weeks, and finally got over that attack with a broken-down constitution, subject frequently to attacks of Rheumatism in my bones when exposed, at least, to cold and dampness. Since that time I have had frequent similar attacks, and have, by the use of Dr Mott's Vegetable Liver Pills, broken up the disease without having the system injured by the use of calomel. I would not be without them on any account. Respectfully, Murderous Assault.—About four o'clock yesterday morning Dr. Davenport was awakened up at his office on Alder street by a man who said that his wife was very ill, and that he wished the Doctor to accompany him out to his house in the Canyon to see her, at the same time stating that he had a carriage in readiness to convey him thither. The Doctor invited him in, and turned around to make the necessary preparations, when the man struck him a blow on the back part of his head with some heavy instrument, which for a moment stunned, but did not bring him down. Upon recovering himself, he quickly got his pistol and fired two or three shots, but without effect, and the man escaped. The wound inflicted is a very severe one, but not considered dangerous. The man was an entire stranger to Dr. Davenport, having never seen him before. No cause can be assigned for this murderous assault, other than that of robbery.

Legal Tenders.—A report was in circulation on the streets yesterday that a dispatch had been received from San Francisco to the effect that Legal Tenders had fallen in value to 65@60 cents. Quite a stir was created among the holders and speculators in greenbacks, by this rumor. By reference to our dispatch in another column, it will be observed that Legal Tenders are quoted in San Francisco at 79@80 cents; and the following private dispatch, received by Messrs. White Bros., quotes them still lower:

San Francisco, Sept. 4th—8 P. M.
Legal Tenders 73 cents, and dropping.

County Court.—S. and D. Baum vs. John G. Lisle. Judgment for $132 25.

George W. Vaughn vs. Stephen Coffin. Judgment for $322 10.

New Distillery.—Messrs. A. M. & L. M. Starr are engaged in erecting a fine two-story brick distillery. It is adjoining their old wooden one, in the lower part of the city.

New and Valuable.—We have just been shown Lloyd's new Map of the United States, the Canadas, and New Brunswick, from the latest surveys, showing every railroad and station, the Atlantic and Gulf coasts—being arranged from the United States Superintendent's official reports of the coast survey, by order of Congress. From examination, we consider this the most accurate and reliable of any thing of the kind we have yet seen, and afforded at a price which places it within reach of every one. Mr. Eukins, agent, will call upon the citizens of Portland and adjoining towns for orders.

Grand Mass Meeting and Union Jubilee!

In view of the numerous and great victories recently achieved by our brave soldiers over the enemies of our common country—and in view of the fact that much remains to be done before the Union of all the States can be restored in its integrity—the loyal citizens of Oregon, who desire a speedy consummation of this end, who are in favor of supporting the Administration in its efforts to crush out and finally and forever the present wicked rebellion, restore and preserve the Union, re-establish our Free Government in the States now in rebellion, and enforce the Constitution and Laws of the United States throughout our entire country, North and South, are requested to meet IN SALEM, ON THE EVENING OF WEDNESDAY, THE 16TH OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1863, to participate in a Grand Mass Meeting and Union demonstration.

Heavy Robbery.—We are informed by stage passengers from Yreka, that Messrs. Greenburg, Erlenbach & Goldsmith, bankers of that place, were robbed of $6,000 in coin and dust, on Tuesday night of this week. Before closing the bank on the night in question, the clerks had exercised their usual caution, examining the room to ascertain that no one was concealed therein, carefully locked up all the valuables in the safe, and seen that the doors and windows of the bank were securely fastened. The following morning the clerk returned from his sleeping room, which was two blocks distant from the bank, and was astonished beyond measure to find that the safe was open, and all the gold coin and dust missing. Our informant says that the safe had been fastened by a "combination" lock; but it seems that the "combination did not trouble the expert thief, for he apparently opened the safe with all the ease of a banker pursuing his legitimate business. A window shutter was unfastened and ajar, which revealed the mode of egress of the rascal. The robber was undoubtedly well acquainted with the premises, but he has covered up his tracks so skillfully that it is very doubtful whether he will ever be discovered and caught.—Sentinel.

R. A. Chapter No. 3.—The Regular Convocation of R. A. Chapter No. 3 will be held at Willamette Hall, A. F. & A. M., on Thursday evening, 10th inst.
Visiting R. A. M.'s are invited to attend.
By order of M. E. H. P.

Attention Company!—Notice is hereby given that a meeting will be held at the Council Room in the City of Portland, on Thursday evening, 10th instant, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of receiving report of Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, and for transacting such other business as may be brought before the meeting as may be necessary for the organization of a military company.

Freedom

[illegible]

O Freedom! thou art not, as poets dream,
A fair young girl, with light and delicate limbs,
And wavy tresses gushing from the cap
With which the Roman master crowned his slave
When he took off the gyves. A bearded man,
Armed to the teeth, art thou; one mailed hand
Grasps the broad shield, and one the sword; thy brow,
Glorious in beauty though it be, is scarred
With tokens of old wars; thy massive limbs
Are strong with struggling. Power at thee has launched
His bolts, and with his lightnings smitten thee;
They could not quench the life thou hast from heaven.
Merciless power has dug thy dungeon deep,
And his swart armorers, by a thousand fires,
Have forged thy chain; yet while he deems thee bound,
The links are shivered, and the prison walls
Fall outward; terribly thou springest forth,
As springs the flame above a burning pile,
And shoutest to the nations, who return
Thy shoutings, while the pale oppressor flies.

Thy birthright was not given by human hands:
Thou wert twin-born with man. In pleasant fields,
While yet our race was few, thou sat'st with him,
To tend the quiet flock and watch the stars,
And teach the reed to utter simple airs.
Thou by his side, amid the tangled wood,
Didst war upon the panther and the wolf,
His only foes; and thou with him didst draw
The earliest furrows on the mountain side,
Soft with the Deluge. Tyranny himself,
Thy enemy, although of reverend look,
Hoary with many years, and far obeyed,
Is later born than thou; and as he meets
The grave defiance of thine elder eye,
The usurper trembles in his fastnesses.

Thou shalt wax stronger with the lapse of years,
But he shall fade into a feebler age—
Feebler, yet subtler. He shall weave his snares,
And spring them on thy careless steps, and clap
His withered hands, and from their ambush call
His hordes to fall upon thee. He shall send
Quaint maskers, wearing fair and gallant forms
To catch thy gaze, and uttering graceful words
To charm thy ear; while his sly imps, by stealth,
Twine round thee threads of steel, light thread on thread,
That grow to fetters; or bind down thy arms
With chains concealed in chaplets. Oh! not yet
Mayst thou unbrace thy corslet, nor lay by
Thy sword; nor yet, O Freedom! close thy lids
In slumber; for thine enemy never sleeps,
And thou must watch and combat till the day
Of the new earth and heaven.

A STRATEGIC LANDLORD.—A Chicago paper states that a man in the West Division owned a small house—a house of one story—which he had let to a tenant upon a mere parole or verbal lease. The period of the tenancy expired and the tenant was notified to vacate. The tenant paid no attention to the notice—indeed paid no attention to several notices. The owner found (as all owners who let houses without a written lease may find,) that without nearly as much trouble and expense as the house was worth, he could not get his tenant out.

In this dilemma, he hit upon a strategic expedient. He read in the papers how General Grant has "cut off the enemy's communications" at Vicksburg, thus placing him in a situation where, as soon as his supplies are exhausted, he must surrender at discretion. Our West Side landlord resolved to cut off his tenant's communications.

He employed a house mover, and requested him to bring an extra supply of blocks. The house mover came, with his blocks, and commenced raising the building. When he had raised it about four feet from the ground, the tenant called a parley. The owner said "Move," the tenant said "No." House-raiser went on with his work. Next morning the tenant found his front door about eighteen feet above the surface of the earth, and no front stairway. It was an elevation from which to jump would be dangerous. He called for a ladder. "Move," said the landlord. The tenant looked down sadly at the beautiful earth spread out before him, and agreed to move. A ladder was brought, down which the tenant and his household gods descended.

A DIFFICULT QUESTION ANSWERED.—"Can any one," says Fanny Fern, "tell me why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl was not made at the same time to wait on her?"

We can, easy. Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar string to be sewed on, or a glove to mend "right away, quick now!" Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretching himself out, yawned out, "ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he! He made the fire and hung the kettle over it himself, we'll venture—and pulled the radishes, peeled the potatoes, and did everything else he ought to. He milked the cows, fed the chickens and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out till eleven o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for an out-and-out candidate, and then scolded because poor Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. He never played billiards, rolled ten pins and drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries, while Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he didn't think she was especially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten a wife's cares a little. That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and with it was the reason that her fair descendants did.

SUNSHINE.—Seclusion from sunshine is one of the misfortunes of our civilized life. The same cause which makes potato vines white and sickly, when grown in dark cellars, operates to produce the pale sickly girls that are reared in our parlors. Expose either to the direct rays of the sun, and they begin to show color, health and strength. One of the ablest lawyers in our country—a victim of long and hard brain labor, came to me a year ago, suffering with partial paralysis. The right leg and hip were reduced in size, with constant pain in the loins. He was obliged, in coming up stairs, to raise the left foot first, on every stair, dragging the right one after it. Pale, feeble, miserable, he told me he had been failing several years, and closed with, "My work is done. At sixty, I find myself worn out." I directed him to lie down under a large window, and allow the sun to fall upon every part of his body; at first, ten minutes a day, increasing the time until he could expose himself to the direct rays of the sun a full hour. His habits were not essentially altered in any other particular. In six months he came running up stairs like a vigorous man of forty, and declared with sparkling eyes, "I have twenty years more of work in me." I have assisted many dyspeptic, neuralgic, rheumatic and hypochondriacal people into health, by the SUN CURE. I have so many facts illustrating the wonderful power of the sun's direct rays in curing certain classes of invalids, that I have seriously thought of publishing a work, to be denominated the "SUN CURE."—Dr. Lewis.

DANIEL S. DICKINSON ON THE RIOT—WHAT HE THINKS OF GOV. SEYMOUR.—Daniel S. Dickinson addressed the people of Genesee, New York, on the 14th of July, on the topics of the day. In the course of his remarks he said he never saw a problem that he was less able to solve than this. How a man outside of a lunatic asylum should want to see this rebellion petted, treated quietly, olive branched, and asked what it would be pleased to have. This rebellion had its existence to-day in the hope of having help here, and its sympathizers at the North are more guilty for its continuance than Jeff. Davis is. [Applause.] It would have been put down before to-day if a party had not arisen to cry for peace.—They say they are our brethren and must be treated kindly. Suppose they are our brethren, what filial man would stand by and see a desperate brother, madly, insanely, recklessly, imbrue his hands in the blood of his mother? We shall fall into Roman degeneracy, which permitted Tarquin to trample on the nation, if we fail to put down this rebellion. Let us remember the dark and trying days of the Revolution, what this Government cost, and then see what miscreant shall raise his hand against it. Benedict Arnold and all the traitors of the past will stand fairer in the future than he who shall attempt to destroy this Government.

Dickinson drew a fine picture of the greatness and happiness of this nation before the dark and infamous conspirators at Washington hatched this rebellion, and, with perjury in their hearts, plotted the destruction of the Government they had sworn to defend. This was the result of conspiracy, and not of rebellion. A short time since a mob held possession of a great city, doing deeds savages would be ashamed of, the offspring of just such doctrines as have been preached in justification of this rebellion. He warned men of wealth that if they pandered to great and little rebellions, the ruffians would ride in bodies to their banks and counting houses, and help themselves to what they want. He warned the merchants, farmers and mechanics that this spirit of rebellion, which politicians are seeking to handle with furred mittens, will take their goods, their produce and their wares, and compel them to pay for their support, unless they put it down at once.—He should do himself and the cause injustice if he did not say that he felt his State to be disgraced, when high officers of the State, from the Chief Executive to a high judicial functionary, talk to a mob in mild and deprecatory language, instead of putting them down with a strong hand. The only speeches he need make to such men would be made with shot and shell, and the only messages he would send would be from the mouths of cannon. [Applause.] When he saw public officers tampering with mobs and addressing them, he thought there must be something wrong. He remembered a story of a couple of boys who had never seen a cod fish, who went down to Newburyport, and their aunt put on the table some nice fish balls. They didn't know what to make of them. One of them put one in his pocket, and when he got out of doors took it out and looked at it, and showed it to his brother, and asked what it was. Neither could tell, and after breaking, and tasting and smelling it, one said, "I can't tell what it is, but I swear there is something dead in it." [Laughter and applause.] So it is with this matter. There is something dead in it—something that wants ventilating.

A REPENTANT REBEL.—While our surgeons at Gettysburg were attending to the wounded as they were brought into the hospitals, without regard to the side upon which they had fought, a rebel Colonel, covered with blood, was ordered to be placed in a bath. He was lifted carefully in, and then, casting his eyes about him, upon those who had taken him up so tenderly, burst into a flood of tears, and wept like a child. Recovering himself, he said to those around him: "I hope I shall be forgiven for raising my hand against the Stars and Stripes, and if I recover from these wounds I will not only never do the like again, but try to make amends, so far as I can, for the wrong I have done."—N. Y. Tribune.

[PUBLIC—No. 18.]

AN ACT for the removal of the Winnebago Indians, and for the sale of their reservation in Minnesota for their benefit.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized to assign to and set apart for the Winnebago Indians a tract of unoccupied land beyond the limits of any State, in extent at least equal to their diminished reservation, the same to be well adapted for agricultural purposes. And it shall be lawful for the President to take such steps as he may deem proper for the quiet removal of the said Indians from the State of Minnesota, and to settle them upon the lands which may be assigned to them under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That upon the removal of the said Indians from the reservation where they now reside, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to cause such legal subdivisions of the said lands to be appraised by discreet persons to be appointed by him for that purpose; and in each instance where there are any improvements upon any legal subdivision of said lands, the improvements shall be separately appraised; [illegible] portion of the said land shall be subject to pre-emption [illegible] under any act of Congress, unless the party pre-empting [illegible] thereupon or locating any portion [illegible] shall pay therefor the full appraised value thereof, including the value of said improvements, [illegible] such regulations as is hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That after the appraisal of the said reservation the same shall be opened to pre-emption, entry, and settlement, in the same manner as other public lands: Provided, That before any person shall be entitled to enter any portion of the said lands by pre-emption or otherwise, previous to their exposure to sale at public outcry, he shall become an actual bona fide settler thereon, and shall conform to all the regulations now provided by law in cases of pre-emption, and shall pay, within the term of one year from date of his settlement, the full appraised value of the land, and the improvements thereon, to the land officers of the district where the said lands are situated. And the portion of the said reservation which may not be settled upon as aforesaid, may be sold at public auction as other public land are sold, after which they shall be subject to sale at private entry, as other public lands of the United States; but no portion thereof shall be sold for a sum less than their appraised value before the 1st of January, anno Domini 1865, nor for a less price than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre thereafter. [illegible] where improvements have been made by persons authorized by law to trade with said Indians, the value of such improvements or the price for which the same may be sold shall be paid to the parties making the same; and in case the land upon which such improvements shall have been made shall be purchased by the parties making the same, the value of the improvements so made by him shall form no part of the purchase price to be paid for the said land.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the lands of said Indians which have been set apart for the payment of the debts of the said Indians, shall be sold on sealed bids for the best price the same will bring, but no bids shall be received for said land until the first day of January, anno Domini 1865, for less than two dollars and fifty cents per acre. Bids shall be received for tracts of quarter sections and for such tracts conforming to the Government surveys less than 160 acres as will secure the largest price for said land. The Secretary is authorized to receive, in payment for said lands, certificates of indebtedness of said Indians issued by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the debts of said Indians [illegible] paid out of the sale of said lands by the third article of the treaty of said Indians with the United States, concluded at Washington on the fifteenth day of April, 1859. The money arising from the sale of their said lands after paying the indebtedness required by said treaty to be paid, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and shall be expended as the same is received under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior in necessary improvements upon their new reservation; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to allot to said Indians in severalty lands which they may respectively cultivate and improve, not exceeding eighty acres to each head of a family, other than to the chiefs, to whom larger allotments may be made, which lands, when so allotted, shall be vested in said Indians and their heirs without the right of alienation, and shall be evidenced by patent.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the money to be annually appropriated for the benefit of the said Indians shall be expended in such manner as will, in the judgment of the President, best advance the said Indians in agricultural and mechanical pursuits, and enable them to sustain themselves without the aid of the Government. And in such expenditure reasonable discrimination may be made in favor of the chiefs who shall be found faithful to the Government of the United States, and efficient in maintaining its authority and the peace of the Indians. Said Indians shall be subject to the laws of the United States and to the criminal laws of the State or Territory in which they may happen to reside. They shall also be subject to such rules and regulations for their government as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe; but they shall be deemed incapable of making any valid civil contract with any person other than a native member of their tribe without the consent of the President of the United States. The Secretary of the Interior shall also make reasonable provision for the education of said Indians, according to their capacity and the means at his command.

Approved, February 21, 1863.

HELMBOLD'S
Genuine Preparation.

'HIGHLY CONCENTRATED'
Compound Fluid
EXTRACT BUCHU,
A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY
FOR DISEASES OF THE
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL
AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCAREOUS depositions and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin,	Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,
once affected by Organic Weakness,
Requires the Aid of Medicine,
to strengthen and invigorate the system, which
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS
Who have been the victims of Quacks

PHILADELPHIA, A

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentle[illegible] land's German Bitters has saved my life. [illegible] take in this. It is vouched for by number[illegible] rades, some of whose names are appended, [illegible] fully cognizant of all the circumstances of [illegible] and have been for the last four years, a [illegible] in a celebrated battery, and under the [illegible] mand of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the [illegible] tendant upon my arduous duties, I was [illegible] vember last with inflammation of the lungs, [illegible] seventy-two days in the hospital. Since that [illegible] about as low as one could be and still retai[illegible] ity. For a week or more I was scarcely [illegible] anything, and if I did force a morsel down, [illegible] ately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water [illegible] Life could not last under these circumstances, [illegible] ingly the physicians who had been working [illegible] though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the [illegible] of the Archer, frankly told me they could [illegible] me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and [illegible] disposition of my limited funds as best [illegible] acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, [illegible] Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, [illegible] forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and [illegible] a bottle. From the time I commenced taking [illegible] gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am [illegible] God for it, getting better. Though I have [illegible] bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I [illegible] being permitted to rejoin my wife and [illegible] whom I have heard nothing for eighteen [illegible] gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the [illegible] Front Royal.
